A JOURNEY IN THE
SEABOARD SLAVE STATES,
By Frederick Law Olmsted.

One volume, 12mo. 720 pages, with woodcuts. Price $1.50

This work is written in the spirit, candid, good-humored, and mainly [illegible] of the author's previous narrative of travel on which [illegible]. The descriptions of Southern life are [illegible], picturesque and dramatic, and much more detailed and accurate than those of most other writers. The book, as such, differs from that kind of information about the South and its institutions, which the public now demands. [illegible] is extraordinary, and exceptional, and more [illegible] illustrates every-day life and general character than has been before attempted. In matters of opinion [illegible] the author is candid and courteous, but expresses his views [illegible] fearlessly and with [illegible].

The Southern [illegible] predicts that this book will have "greater influence on the minds of voters," than Uncle Tom's Cabin has had.

The New York Daily [illegible] says of it, "This work will be by far the best yet published on the subject."

The New Orleans Delta observes of the author—a Prejudiced as his opinions were, he was not a wilfully dishonest man or an unfair writer. We would welcome a few more men of his culture amongst us—prejudiced, but manly and honest.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a business, known only to myself and comparatively a few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $20 each, which has averaged me at the rate of from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring, to engage in the same business, I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit to me the sum of ONE DOLLAR. I am induced from the success I have been favored with, and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from those I have instructed in the Art, and who are now making from $10 to $15 per day, to give every person a chance to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no humbug about the business herein alluded to. References of the first class can be given as regards its character, and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have, within four months embarked in the business, and who will testify that they are making from $5 to $8 per day at the same. It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect ease make a very handsome income. Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed in the Art, are now clearing from $3 to $6 per day. It is a Genteel Business, and but a few shillings are required to start it. Upon receipt of $1,00, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular containing full instructions in the Art, which will be perfectly understood upon being once read.

ATROCIOUS JUDGES!
LIVES OF JUDGES,
INFAMOUS AS
Tools of Tyranny and Instruments of Oppression!
BY JOHN, LORD CAMPBELL.
With an APPENDIX, containing the
CAS OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.
Edited, with an Introduction and Notes,
BY RICHARD HILDRETH.

One Volume, 420 pages, 12mo. Price $1.00.

THE various man-hunting expeditions which have, within the last few years, been made into the North, and the numerous trials, including the Jerry, the Sims, the Burns, and similar cases, and the crowning act of infamy enacted by have excited the profoundest indignation and alarm. The Publishers believe, therefore, that this amply attested and clearly drawn record of what judges have done, will lead the people to see what, if unchecked, judges may still do.

JUDGE KANE UPON PASSMORE WILLIAMSON,

A Brilliant Picture of Virginia Society.
JUST PUBLISHED,
OUR COUSIN VERONICA;
OR,
SCENES AND ADVENTURES OVER THE BLUE RIDGE.
By Mary Elizabeth Wormeley, Author of "Amabel, a Family History."

"THERE is a charm about this work which we can scarcely define, but which makes it one of the most delightful books we ever read. The incidents have the effect of reality, rather than of fiction. Its descriptions of Virginia life are remarkably graphic, vivid and faithful. Some of the scenes are splendid pictures. There is one in the earlier portion of the work, in which the heroine overhears the man she loves confess his passion for another, which is admirably done, and very effective; and there is another describing his escape from a party of desperadoes in Virginia, which is as artistic in its management as anything in Cooper. The work altogether is superior as a literary production, highly entertaining as a novel, and admirable as a work of art."

From Harper's Magazine for February.

"The story of 'Amabel,' by the author of this volume, secured to her an enviable position among the female novelists of this country. The present work will in no respect diminish her reputation. As a whole, we regard it as possessing superior merit, showing a large and refined culture, a justness of thought, and a home-bred naturalness of feeling, which are not always discovered in the novels of the day."

From the Boston Atlas.

"Its great merits are its fidelity to the realities of the life it depicts, the beauty of its descriptions, the nice exactness in which it delineates the softer shades of character, and its simple, easy elegance of style."

NOW READY!
LANMERE.
By JULIA C. R. DORR.
Author of "Farmingdale."
1 vol. 12 mo. 447 pp. Price $1,25.

"The scene of this story is laid in Lanmere, a pleasant country village. The principal persons are as follows:—

MRS. ALLISON;
A strict mother, cold immovable as stone;
MARGARET ALLISON,
A pattern of female placidity and propriety;
BESSIE ALLISON,
A little mischief—sweet, pretty and loveable;
MR. FLOYD,
The Village Pastor,—a man of goodness, truth and piety
WILLIAM WENTWORTH,
Honest and honorable—truthful and self-sacrificing
WALLACE BUCHANANN,
A mystery to all who do not know him;
ELLEN WENTWORTH,
Bessie's friend and confidant;
PAUL WARREN,
A faithful minister, without the ostentation of outward piety;
GRACE WARREN,
His sister—a true woman; the consoler of the afflicted and the supporter of the lowly.

Other characters are introduced, and the story is replete with varied incidents and descriptions. In the gradual unfolding of the characters of the two sisters, Bessie and Margaret, the author has displayed consummate skill; and she has imbued her narrative with such interest, that the reader is chained to her pages from first to last."

News of the Morning.

THE Senate was principally occupied yesterday in receiving petitions from persons decapitated by the late Naval Retiring Board. Inquiries were also made into the expediency of abolishing the Spanish currency now in general circulation or at least to fix some value more in accordance with its real worth. A good move.

A letter from Kansas, under date of Jan 17 gives intelligence of the triumph of the Free State ticket. Another of Jan. 20 states that Mr Brown, of the Herald of Freedom, had been brutally murdered by a mob of ruffians.

The brig W H Sayford, of Bangor, Me, lying in New York Harbor, was cut through by the ice on Sunday night and soon sunk, taking with her seven persons.

HORACE GREELEY's account of the attack made upon him by Rust, of Arkansas, will be found in another column.

William Cullom, of Tennessee, was elected Clerk of the House, yesterday.

A woman was frozen to death in the streets of this city on Saturday night last.

The New York Market exhibits a depression in prices.

A severe fire occurred at Syracuse, N. Y. on Sabbath evening last.

The Republican Triumph.

The election of NATHANIEL P. BANKS of Massachusetts, as Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, is the first National triumph achieved by the REPUBLICAN PARTY. As such, it is hailed everywhere with the most sincere satisfaction, not only because it ends so gloriously a long and doubtful struggle, but because it holds out the promise of further still more important triumph in the future. We accord all praise to the gallant Representatives from the Free States, who in this protracted and hard fought contest, have so faithfully reflected the popular sentiment and stuck to their posts and their candidate, without flinching, till the battle was won. It is a valuable lesson for them, and valuable, too, for the South. It is the first time, in many, very many years, that the North has stood up manfully for Right and Freedom, and the first time, too, that the South has been defeated in its grasp for more power.

Both parties have tested each other's strength and resolution, and Northern backbone has at length been developed at Washington in sufficient quantities to stay the tide of Southern aggression. Most heartily therefore, do we rejoice in Mr BANKS' election. The result has placed in the Speaker's chair the man of all others in the present Congress best fitted for the important and responsible duties of that station, and it has settled the fact that the North, if true to its own rights, to humanity and to freedom, can arrest the progress of Slavery, confine it within its own bounds and keep this Sectional evil from growing into a National curse and crime.

Proceedings in Congress.

The House of Representatives still continues without a Speaker, and the probability of an organization appears now to be as much a matter of uncertainty as ever. The Democrats are still voting for Orr, and it is a source of pride to the Democracy of the Union to see the devotion to principle they have manifested throughout the protracted contest.—Fond du Lac Union.

This "devotion to principle" all vanished before the contest closed. The Sham Democracy not only abandoned their candidate and platform, but went in en masse for Mr SMITH, a K. N. representative from Virginia, for Speaker. Failing in this attempt, and beaten at all points, they made a last stand on Mr AIKEN, of South Carolina, and with the help of their Know Nothing Allies ran him up within three votes of Mr BANKS, on the ballot which resulted in the latter gentleman's election as Speaker. It was this utter rout and dispersion of the "Democratic" forces, which drew from Mr MARSHALL this exulting remark:

Mr A K Marshall, during the call of the roll congratulated his American friends, saying they had fought a good fight and conquered.—There was now no Democratic candidate in the field; the an offensive caucus platform, performing his duty as a patriot, not as a partizan, he voted for Mr Aiken.

The Know Nothings and the Sham Democracy went down together, in this final tilt, under the victorious lance of the Republican phalanx.

REMEMBER THE POOR. HELP WANTED. We learn from the Officers of our Milwaukee Relief Association that the intense cold weather has vastly increased the number and urgency of the demands made upon them for fuel, food and clothing. There is a good deal of suffering among the poorer classes of our city, and it must not be that their cries for help shall go unheeded. Very many of our wealthy citizens have, as yet, given little or nothing to the Relief Fund. The Merchants and Business men on East Water Street have done their part generously, and we know of one liberal hearted firm which sent $25 to the Treasurer of the Relief Association two or three weeks ago, and repeated the donation Saturday.

But there are those living off East Water street who are well able to give and as yet have contributed nothing. We are confident that it is not from lack of charity that they withhold their aid, but because they do not appreciate the need for help. If any doubt on this point we urge them to see and talk with the visitors and collectors of the association and satisfy them elves how much suffering there is among the poor of our city and how strong the appeal to their more fortunate fellow men, for the means to save themselves and their little ones from perishing with cold or hunger. Assuring our readers that the need is great and urgent for provisions, clothing, fuel, and money, and that whatever they can spare will be most thankfully received and faithfully distributed by the Relief Association, we once more invoke them to Remember the Poor. Donations may be sent to Mr P. C. HALE, on Wisconsin street.

THE FREE STATE PLATFORM.—The following is the platform adopted at the Mass Meeting of the Free State men, held at Lawrence, Kansas, on the eve of their recent election for State Officers, Members of the Legislature and Member of Congress:

"Whereas, The unoffending settlers of Kansas have endeavored by every means within their power to cultivate relations of friendship and amity with their Pro-Slavery brethren in Missouri. And whereas, These advances, instead of being met in a spirit of conciliation, have been met by outrages the most brutal and glaring, thereby forcing us to the conclusion that the institution of Slavery possesses within itself elements of injustice, intolerance and aggression [illegible] to the enslaved, but to all those who [illegible] Territory—elements which, if enforced, as recent acts of our neighbors show it their intention to do, can result in endangering not only our lives and liberties, but the perpetuity of our glorious Republic, therefore

"Resolved, That in view of the determination on the part of the Slave Power to destroy and take away the rights which as American citizens belong to us, it is our duty to unfurl our banner to the breeze, and adopt as our motto 'A Free State Government in Kansas without delay,' emanating from the People and responsible to them; non-interference with the institution of Slavery in the States where it now exists and opposition to its further extension."

This is identical with the REPUBLICAN Platform, and commends itself to the sympathy and support of all lovers of Freedom, Justice and Humanity.

Milwaukee & Watertown Railroad.

DR JAMES JOHNSON, having resigned his post as President of the Milwaukee & Watertown R R Company, the Board of Directors, at their meeting on Saturday elected WM B HIBBARD to fill the vacancy. Mr HIBBARD is a man of great sagacity, excellent sense, proverbial energy and large means. The Directors and officers of this road, are:

DIRECTORS.

Wm B Hibbard,	James Johnson,
John S Rockwell,	John H Tweedy,
Alex Mitchell,	Eliphalet Cramer,
Hans Crocker,	Cyrus Hawley,
Cyrus Hawley,	Wm M Dennis,
Daniel Jones,	Albert L Pritchard,
John A Elliott

OFFICERS.
WM B HIBBARD, President.
J I HATHAWAY, Secretary and Treasurer.
E D SEWELL, Jr, Chief Engineer and Superintendent.

It is the intention of the Board to push their road to Columbus and Portage as rapidly as possible and they expect to reach the former point by the 1st of October next. They have also formed a connection with the Watertown and Madison road, which is to be built within the next two years. The road is doing a good business, is under excellent management, and as it extends further into the interior of our State, becomes more and more valuable to the stockholders and to our city.

POSTAL REFORM.—This important subject engages, as it deserves, a large share of public attention. A meeting was held at the New York Exchange on Monday which was attended by many of the leading merchants and business men and unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the condition of our Post Office system is entirely inadequate to meet the wants of the country, and is discreditable to the intelligence and energy of our people.

Resolved, That in order to make the system what it ought to be it is necessary in the opinion of this meeting, substantially to introduce the following reforms:

1—Uniform postage of two cents on letters, without regard to distance, and a cheap uniform rate for printed matter.

2—Receiving House and Letter Carriers for the collection and delivery of letters in cities and principal towns without extra charge.

3—Money Order, for sums not exceeding $25, to be drawn by the principal Post Offices on each other.

4—Compulsory pre-payment to be abolished and double postage to be charged on all mail matter not prepaid.

5—All Dead Letters to be returned to the writers and, whenever possible, without opening.

6—The Postage on all Franked Matter to be paid by the Government.

Resolved, That a committee of fifteen be appointed with power to call a public meeting, with a view to urge upon the Government the adoption of these improvements.

Resolved, That the same committee have power to correspond with our fellow citizens throughout the country, and to take such measures as they shall consider necessary for the purpose of producing the desired result.

The following gentlemen compose the committee raised under the last resolution:

THOMAS TILESTON, Chairman.

Fernando Wood,	George A. Moore,
James Harper,	Isaac V. Fowler,
Moses H Grinnell,	Robert S. Stewart,
Thos B Stillman,	Watts Sherman,
Wm H Appleton,	Wm B. Duncan,
Theodore Sedgwick,	Peter Cooper,
James Lee,	James Brown,
John F Williams,	Pliny Miles.

We hope that this New York movement will move Congress to prompt action on a subject which interests the whole Country, and which, more than all others, imperatively demands a thorough overhauling.

THE FIRE OF THE FLINT.—The following letter from E B WASHBURNE, Esq., M. C. from the Galena District, Illinois, is published in the Rockford Register. It is a good sample of the spirit which animated the Republican members in the House of Representatives and which led to the glorious victory on Saturday last:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Jan 8, 1856.

"MY DEAR SIR:—I have yours of the 5th inst from Jersey City. I am glad to hear such a voice, and to learn that the public sentiment of the country sustains the cause of the true men in Congress who are so firmly and courageously upholding the banner of Freedom in the great contest now waging here between Liberty and Slavery. We are having a great fight and our men mostly stand like heroes. For nearly six weeks we have fought shoulder to shoulder against the gigantic power of Slavery, and the insidious power of doughfaces. We have been sorely betrayed both by men who are voting with us but who are doing all they can to compass the defeat of Banks in a sneaking and indirect way. But I have faith and hope that we have true men enough to defeat all the schemes, and that Banks must eventually be elected. If I have not a constituent who does not believe I will be the first on the ground and the last one off, in this great contest, he does me great injustice. I am for Banks first, last and all the time, without concession or compromise, till the end of my constitutional term.

"The North has yielded the last time with my consent. I resist all further encroachments to the bitter end.

"Trumbull is with us, heart and soul. Douglas is not here. I shall always be glad to hear from you. I write in some haste.

Truly, your friend,
E B WASHBURNE.

CUTTING IT RATHER SHORT.—The American of yesterday discoursing largely upon the election of Mr B[anks] as Speaker and what is to come of it, says:

There are now but four weeks remaining of the present session of Congress, which adjourns on the 4th of March. No business has yet been transacted, and we do not see how Congress is to conclude its business within the remaining thirty days.

Evidently Congress and the American hold different opinions on this point. The former labor under the idea that this is the long, not the short Session of Congress, and we rather think they are right.

ELECTION OF CLERK.—The House of Representatives yesterday elected as their Clerk, by 40 majority, WILLIAM CULLOM, late a whig Representative from Tennessee, and one of the few Southern men who in the last Congress resisted to the utterrmost the Nebraska Iniquity. Northern men have embraced their first opportunity in their power to testify their sense of his services and sacrifices on that occasion. He will make a good officer, and has well earned the compliment thus paid.

BASHFORD vs. BARSTOW.—ANOTHER DELAY ASKED.—Mr Arnold, one of Mr Barstow's counsel in the Governor case, made a motion in the Supreme Court on Saturday to dismiss the information filed by the Attorney General and to allow the defence thirty days to prepare an argument against the jurisdiction of the court! The court denied the motion but granted one week from to day to prepare such argument.

Every pretext is sought by the usurper to delay this trial, and stave off the final decision. It is a tacit acknowledgment of the weakness of his cause. He dares not meet the facts, and hence these desperate attempts on the part of his counsel, to evade an investigation.—Madison Journal of yesterday.

The People have their eye upon these tricks of the "Artful Dodgers." A plea to the jurisdiction is the best answer they can cook up to the election frauds charged home upon them. They do not deny the frauds, but dispute the right of the Supreme Court to remedy the wrong thus committed. If this doctrine be a sound one, it is in the power of the State Canvassers at every election to defeat the will of the People, and to set the ballot box at defiance.

MATTERS ABOUT THE CAPITOL.—The business of legislation was somewhat monotonous last week and nothing of an exciting nature transpired about the capitol. Some interest is felt in relation to the condition of the State Treasury and the accounts of the late treasurer. It is a week to-day since the present State Treasurer was requested by resolution of the Senate to inform that body what amount was in the Treasury on the 1st of January and what sum was paid over to him by the late Treasurer. No answer has, as yet been given. There must be some difficulty in making the books balance, so as to correspond with the statements in Barstow's message.—Madison Journal.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Men and Things in Gotham.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Mr MERCURY, a gentleman of the composite order, and inventor of "Heated terms" and controller generally of this lower atmosphere, has evidently been on his "taps," during this reigning, or rather snowing, and blowing month of January, for never were his erudite communications so long and so numerous as they have been the past four weeks. From habit and inclination one observation is taken each hour of the 24, a species of self sacrifice which he, no doubt, considers entitles him to a certain amount of space in our daily papers and his articles to a careful reading from a kind and indulgent public. How he does so much and whether gold rewards him for his labors, are matters which to most will ever be a mystery.—By careful and unremitted attention he had succeeded in obtaining the valuable services of a four footed assistant, in the shape of an ungainly New Foundland dog, whose canine habits of imitation improved by education, had become in time perfected, by following at the heels of his intelligent master during his hourly consultings of the weather signs, till he stole a march on his preceptor, and got into a very bad habit of regularly waking up the old Gent when he was inclined to oversleep himself and forget his duties to the public. In fact he had become Mr M's main reliance in his scientific observations until within the past few days, when some evil disposed person made way with the interesting animal who perhaps disturbed said person's virtuous dreams "by howling his watch," or "baying the moon" as every astronomically inclined dog is sure to do when exposed to the night air in the back garden. The loss to Mr M is irreparable, though the public as yet have not suffered materially by "the deep damnation of the taking off."

Speaking of the clerk of the weather embodied as above, reminds me that we have had several "terms" lately quite comfortable spells and some infernal sharp ones. To-night, six inches more of snow added to the "debris," which had become a sight to be seen, having remained for about four weeks in a very unprotected manner in our streets exposed to those cleanly influences which, even with the street sweepers so renowned in our city. January of this year will have to take it, when overhauled by future historians. Intensely cold weather, skull breaking sidewalks, ashe-colored, mealy textured snow, knee deep on the streets, rivers wide wastes of ice fields, of a ferry boat breaking, sinking and stopping and business bothering disposition and various other little peculiarities too numerous to mention have made it a January never to be forgotten. Two news items on the "pave" merit attention, and couldn't help being noticed, even by the near sighted. The ladies are wearing boots, bless their dear souls, why didn't they think of it before, as less eye distracting and more health preserving. The other novelty is stocking over-gaiters, white stockings please, and rubbers over them, giving them a very neat and slippery appearance. The latter are worn by those who wish to get just as near consumption as possible. The old plan was to meet the enemy and be his, a decided improvement all will allow.

There are other novelties in Broadway which one forgets to notice. Gutter skating juveniles performing evolutions on one foot, a contracted way of enjoying that sport, I never noticed outside of Gotham. Men feeling the virtues of spiked iron heel taps counteracting the effects of internal ones, men doing the same for gutta percha solutions with a capital of a tin pan and an ice imbedded boot therein, an ocular demonstration that "Metamora" never lies—invest a quarter and cheat the Doctor and his silent partner. John Chinaman crouches a miserable bent up specimen of humanity on every corner, every one thought they had gone to warmer climes, but it seems they havn't, perhaps the cold has drawn them out.

Wisconsin quails and prairie hens do their own selling by legions, and are silent monitors that one can't withstand and the consequence is they go off rapidly at remunerative prices, and the great West is robbed of her choicest feathered property. Frozen spotted trout and other fish, form no small feature in the itinerant line, while beggars beggar all description in numbers audacity, variety of fleshly ills, pseudo occupations, &c. Interesting females visit down town counting rooms, and draw largely on charitable pockets, while the proceeds, supposed to be invested in Magdalen and other Asylums for the destitute and ailing, have, in one instance at least, conduced to the happiness of large families living gregariously and luxuriously, the young ladies attached being devout admirers and patrons of free love principles and institutions. But the most comfortable thing I've seen during this cold snap was a wooden Indian without emblematic of real Havana within, smoking a cigar on the sidewalk, a crown of ice on his weather-beaten old "knob," and the smoke curling playfully around his time nicked frontispiece, a very ingenious thing the admiration of which leads many to invest four cents on the spot at once.

Last week an alarm of fire was first transmitted from the Chief Engineer's office through the city by telegraph, and the novelty undoubtedly will soon be in general use, while the wonder is, that it has not been introduced long since. Boston tested it thoroughly and satisfactorily years ago.—But then Gotham don't like "Yankee notions." James Irving's nomination for Superintendent of Repairs on public buildings, has at length been withdrawn by his obstinate friend Mr Selah, whose true name according to the Hebrew tongue, means "stop there," and he did, after going far enough to subject himself to a severe scorching from the public generally. Mr Irving suffers, perhaps more than he deserves from bad associations, being a noted butcher boy and a good deal mixed up in various street fights. He figured in recently and lost at the Poole row, but like many another dog he has a bad name, and we are a strictly sin hating community here, periodically as all must know. The batch of gamblers, including all the upper ten of the fraternity, have come up for trial and gone off on de[m]ay, much to universal disappointment. I sometimes think it a pity such persons should be favored with trial at all, a spice of despotism being necessary in the freest community. As it is, such gentry got the best talent to defend them and succeed in getting clear thereby. Old lawyers there will be a great house warming one of these days for some of your brethren, guilty of such charitable deeds. The suit of Jones vs Harper, for delivering of $50,000 worth of daily Times stock, was dismissed last week, no contract being proved. This transaction some months since made quite a stir here, it being said that Mr H had accepted hastily an offer for his interest and was inclined to back out. The trial unfortunately for his reputation, showed he carried out that inclination more successfully than honorably. That peculiar building so generally noticed for a year or two at the fork made by Broadway and 5th Avenue has recently been christened the St Germain Hotel, and forms another luxurious, saint like abode for the dear people, beautifully blending the democracy and aristocracy of our institutions. A House which has been quite prominent for years as sellers of drafts on Ireland, has got into difficulty on a charge of defrauding credulous domestics of their hard earned wages, and instead of assisting their generous designs, have given them worthless drafts.

This House of Roche, O'Beirne & Co, have done such villainous deeds before and nothing but ignorance can have given them the credit they have had and abused so long. It is strange, but most of all the horrors suffered here by poor immigrants are inflicted on them by their own countrymen, who in the garb and confidence of nationality carry out their most infamous designs with seeming impunity.

To-night the "Rights of Man" are attended to, and the friends of that unhappy man whose name and destiny, was "Paine," meet to do honor to his memory. Various "Burns" festivals in honor of Scotia's dearest poet, here and elsewhere, have taken place and whole souled times were had from all accounts. Dry scotch humor and wet scotch whiskey bring forth many a telling song and tale and brilliant speech, and he must indeed be a dull fellow, who, on such an occasion, cannot speak a good word for the man who composed the sweetest of songs at the plow tail. The world of amusements is as usual, retarded in its wagging, somewhat by the weather however. "Pocahontas" and John Brougham have gone off together to astonish the F. F. V.'s of Old Virginia and elsewhere below the line. "Yrca Mathias, now Mad Ravel, will soon dispute Terpsichorean honors with Mlle Robert at Niblo's, who bring out shortly too a pantomime which is to eclipse any thing yet produced at that [illegible] locality. Laura Keene is doing very well at [illegible] Bulwer at the same time, as an actress she has no superior here if elsewhere. Burton has had rather a hard time of it, but is adding to his company, talent of a telling kind. Gottschalk, Eisfeldt and Mollenhauer with Mason and Bergmann, are doing the [illegible] instrumental music most acceptably. The [illegible] is having a good time [illegible] probably to Philadelphia before [illegible], to get the [illegible] the brotherly love city. The [illegible] Boston on the [illegible] of March [illegible] Crawford's splendid [illegible] with [illegible] Mme [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] will have a benefit [illegible] On the 11th [illegible] and supper given [illegible] So we go.

Special Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. [illegible]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Lecture of Mr. [illegible] State Sup[erintendent] on Capital Punishment was delivered in the Hall of the Assembly last night to a [illegible] spectacle and very attentive audience. Mr B[illegible] is a fine speaker, writes well and [illegible] embodied in his lecture all the arguments to be brought forward against the restoration of the Death Penalty. They were presented with much ac[illegible] and a good deal of force. The strong points on his own side brought forward and [illegible] relief and those bearing most strongly against his positions passed over with a light hand.

The Bible argument was met by the assumption that the law was passed for a barbarous age and an uncivilized people and that while the circumstances of the time in which it was given justified it, that now in the noon of the 19th century in this age of light and knowledge such a law was bloody and barbarous and unworthy of the sanction of enlightened men. He characterized the code of the Jews as stern, cruel and vindictive, quoted largely from the argument of Wendell Phillips before the Massachusetts Legislature and from the Bill of rights of that State. He admitted the right of Govt to take life when a necessity existed and [illegible] show me that a necessity clearly exists for punishment in this form and tho I may mourn over my fellow man &c. I submit let the weight of punishment fall on the Guilty &c &c. He closed by an appeal to the Legislature not to repeal the present law but to take down the Gallows and imprison for life.

The Senate did not sit to day. In the House very little of interest. I send herewith a copy of a Bill to be introduced into the Assembly by Mr Mills of Grant, devoted to the School fund. It is a measure in which the whole State is interested and I suppose you will publish its principal sections. I therefore forbear [illegible].

SIGMA.

P. S. The argument on the jurisdiction of the contested Governorship was to day set down for Monday, the 11th instant.

MATTERS IN KANSAS

Triumph of the Free State Ticket—Another Invasion Expected.

LAWRENCE, Jan [illegible]

Yesterday the election of State officers came off, and with quiet tranquility so far as now heard from. Robinson is beyond doubt elected by a large majority, the bolting ticket having made but little progress. Lawrence gave the regular ticket a good endorsement. The vote throughout the Territory will be pretty full, except in Leavenworth, Kickapoo, Atchison and may be some other towns on the river where we expect no polls were opened on account of absolute fear of loss of life and property. The Mayor of Leavenworth issued a proclamation forbidding the holding of any election, as he deemed it unsafe to do so. The former Mayor, I learn has resigned, who was a professed Free State man, the new one is not.

The Pro Slavery party in this precinct came forward and voted generally for Black Law men. They did it through fear that the State organization might amount to something and [illegible] they said they wished to be represented. But the regular Free State ticket was elected.

More arrests for crimes have been attempted by Sheriff Jones. He succeeded in arresting two men charged with stealing. They were guilty of some flagrant crimes, and no interference was offered more on this account than any other. One of them, however, presented a revolver to Jones and said he would not be taken. Jones afterwards succeeded in getting him. This was last week. But to day after the criminal was tried over and Jones was about taking him to jail, the wife of [illegible] ward and took her husband by the arm and told the sheriff he could not go. [illegible] advanced to take him, when she drew a revolver, cocked it and raised it bidding him not to touch her husband, or she would shoot. This was in the street in front of the Magistrate's office. A large crowd at once gathered round and sent up a loud laugh, much to the chagrin of Jones. This happened late this afternoon, and the prisoner will be in her custody instead of the Sheriff.—What the result will be no one can tell. The woman was from Massachusetts. Names may be necessary hereafter.

Another man, charged with being engaged in robbing a tailor's shop, refused to be arrested on any terms. Jones then addressed Dr Robinson and Col Lane the following note:

LAWRENCE, Jan 15 1856.

GENERAL ROBINSON AND LANE—Gentlemen—Did or did you not pledge yourselves [illegible] council at Franklin on the —— day of December last to assist me, as Sheriff in the arrest of any person in Lawrence against whom I might have a writ and to furnish me with a posse to enable me to do so.

Respectfully,
SAMUEL J JONES
Sheriff Douglas County, K T

Here is the answer:

LAWRENCE CITY, Jan 16 1856.

SIR:—In the answer to your note of yesterday we state that at the time and place mentioned we may have said that we would assist any legal officer in the service of any legal process in this city, and also, that no forcible resistance would be made to the arrest, by you of one of the rescuers of Branson, as we deemed to test the validity of the enactment of the body that met at the Mission called the Kansas Legislature, by an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Yours respectfully,
[Signed] C ROBINSON,
J H LANE.

S J JOHNSON, Present.

These notes passed, and to day Mr Jones has sent another note asking if they acknowledge him as the Sheriff of Douglas county—if they acknowledge the Territorial Law and if they will furnish a person to enforce them. The answer to this has not been given, but it will most likely be, that Generals Robinson and Lane do not acknowledge his right to catechise them. Were I to answer him I would refer him to the platform of the Free State Party, which repudiates and ignores the Legislature in toto.

I am fully convinced that another invasion will be made. Woodson is acting Governor and Jones says he will put us through, as Governor Shannon did not. The person attempted to be arrested has escaped—probably he has not gone far. We have not seen the end of our troubles.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—We are sorry in being compelled to relate a shocking accident which befell Mr Thomas Gavin on Tuesday last. While chopping down trees in the vicinity of this town, one of them fell on him, crushing him to the ground in an awful manner. His skull was fractured and laid open, and presents a horrible sight. Doctors Fay and Torrey are attending him, and they entertain poor hopes of his recovery.—Menasha Advocate.

Editorial Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

Border Ruffianism in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Jan 29 1856.

I have heard since I came here a good deal of the personal violence to which I was exposed, but only one man has offered to attack me till to day and he was so [illegible] that he made a poor fist of it. In fact I do not remember that any man ever [illegible] attacked me till now.

I was conversing with two gentlemen on my way down from the Capitol after the adjournment of the House this afternoon, when a stranger requested a word with me. I stopped, and my friend went on. The stranger, who appeared in the prime of life, six feet high and who must weigh over two hundred, thus began—

"Is your name Greeley?"

"Yes."

"Are you a non combatant?"

"That's according to circumstances."

The words were hardly out of my mouth, when he struck me a stunning blow on the right side of my head, and followed it by two or three more, as rapidly as possible. My hands were still in my great coat pockets, for I had no idea he was about to strike. He staggered me against the fence of the walk from the Capitol to the Avenue, but did not get me down. I rallied as soon as possible, and saw him standing several feet from me, with several persons standing or rushing in between us. I asked, "Who is this man? I don't know him," and understood him to answer with an imprecation, "You'll know me soon enough," or "You'll know me hereafter," when he turned and went toward the street. No one answered my inquiry directly, but some friends soon came up who told me that my assailant was Albert Rust, M. C. from Arkansas. He gave no hint of any cause or pretext he may have had for this assault, but I must infer that it is to be found in my strictures in Monday's Tribune (letter of Friday evening last) on his attempt to drive Mr Banks out of the field as a candidate for Speaker by his resolution inviting all the present candidates to withdraw. I thought that movement mean and said so most decidedly. I certainly think no better of it now that I have made the acquaintance of its author.

The bills over, I walked down along [illegible] followed conversing with two friends. Crossing [illegible] street they dropped behind [illegible] and I walking [illegible] National Hotel [illegible] One of them [illegible] upon me—I [illegible] "Do you know me now?" I [illegible] Rust of Arkansas. He [illegible] something [illegible] would do if I were a combatant [illegible] I replied [illegible] He now drew a heavy cane [illegible] I had not seen before and struck a [illegible] blow at my head which I caught on my left arm with no other [illegible] than a rather severe bruise. He was trying to strike again, and I was endeavoring to close with him, when several persons rushed between and separated us. I did not strike him at all [illegible] a finger on him, but it certainly would have been [illegible] me had I been able to prevent [illegible] from knocking him down. I cannot [illegible] movement of his hand [illegible] must have been toward a pistol in his belt. And the crowd [illegible] Northern [illegible] renewed his attack on me.

Now, I would [illegible] Rust['s] proposition [illegible] provoking it [illegible] had not spoken of it [illegible] But Mr McMullen of Va, who is a violent Pro Slavery Democrat has repeatedly spoken of it in public and in private quite [illegible] stigmatized it in the House [illegible] to Mr Banks, and declared that he was anxious to beat Mr B but would not in that way. Mr McMullen tried to speak of it in the House when he voted to lay it on the table but the gag rule prevented. In fact it is notorious here that Rust's attempt to induce Mr Banks to decline was defeated because the better portion of Mr Banks' adversaries, though they badly wanted to get him off the track, could not stoop to this mode of doing it. Hear what Mr McMullen said of it in the House to day:

"However much, Mr Clerk, I condemn—as undoubtedly I do condemn, and as it seems to me every gentleman should condemn—the conduct of Mr Banks in holding on to his position as a candidate with unprecedented pertinacity, yet, Sir, it was not my province then, nor is it my province or my purpose now to condemn that gentleman's conduct by a formal vote. My rule, Sir, has been through life never to take counsel from my enemies. Mr Banks has a right to look upon the Democratic party as his enemies. We are such. I declare myself one of them, and I do not believe that it is in accordance with that courtesy that should characterize the conduct of a gentleman on this side of the House to attempt to dictate to the other side of the House. That was the ground upon which I placed my vote in voting to lay that resolution upon the table. I sought the opportunity to explain that vote at the time the question was taken, but we were acting then under the iron rule of the gag law, and I was prevented from doing so."

[This is the Globe's report which I am confident is less strong than the language actually used by Mr McMullen. I have a clear recollection of hearing Mr M. say that while he was anxious to beat Mr Banks he could not vote to insult him.]

I presume this is not the last outrage to which I am to be subjected. I came here with a clear understanding that it was about an even chance whether I should or should not be allowed to go home alive, for my business here is to unmask hypocrisy, defeat treachery and rebuke meanness, and these are not dainty employments even in smoother times than ours. But I shall stay here just so long as I think proper, using great plainness of speech but endeavoring to treat all men justly and faithfully. I may often judge harshly, and even be mistaken as to facts, but I shall always be ready to correct my mistakes and amend my judgments. I shall carry no weapons and engage in no brawls, but if ruffians waylay and assail me I shall certainly not run, and, so far as able, I shall defend myself.

The School Fund.

We noticed the introduction of a bill, by Mr Mills of Grant, providing a new system for the management of the School and University Fund. The following is a brief synopsis of the bill:

All principal and interest due the School and University funds shall be paid into the Treasurer's office of the county where the land sold or mortgaged to secure them lies. The office of each county Treasurer is made the office of the State Treasurer for this purpose. [illegible] Application [illegible] Register of Deeds [illegible] now does. The application [illegible] to the county Treasurer and [illegible] countersigned by the clerk, is [illegible] transmitted to the commissioners at the Capitol. The [illegible] receiving the monthly report from the counties showing the payment of the money [illegible] certificate [illegible] to which it is now required to [illegible]. The State Board [illegible] no more direct loans. All applications for loans are made through the Register of Deeds who sends on to the State Board the required proofs and evidences respecting the land offered in security. He also sends on at the same time a mortgage duly executed and signed. If the State Board consider the security sufficient they [illegible] to make the loan. If not the State Board cancel the note and mortgage and enclose them to the Register. If they approve [illegible] of the application and the amount of the mortgage [illegible] office in the county [illegible] for the amount, payable to the borrower—send the mortgage with all to the Register—give notice to the Treasurer—authorize by letter the borrower to receive the draft—but both to be paid by the county Treasurer if recorded by the clerk of the county Board. [illegible] the possession of the draft by the county Treasurer is evidence of payment in his favor until, after payment, it is again presented to the clerk and certified by him.

Whether this system is preferable or not we have not given the subject sufficient attention to judge. The object aimed at is at all events desirable. The School Fund is rapidly becoming a mere engine in the hands of politicians and some means should be devised to check the evil.—Madison Journal.

Result of the Late Election in Kansas.

[From the Lawrence Herald Jan 19]

The State elections were held on Tuesday last and resulted in the election of Gen Chas Robinson as Governor, and the balance of the ticket nominated at the State Convention in this city on the [illegible], by a large majority, and that notwithstanding the efforts of a few demagogues to defeat the regularly elected ticket.

At Leavenworth no polls were opened. The new Mayor, who derived his authority from an unknown source in consequence of Mr Slocum's resignation, issued a proclamation forbidding an election. Besides this an armed body of men moved over from Missouri and threatened the destruction of the Free State settlers if a ballot was [illegible]. We learn too that they marched with a part into the Territory for the breaking up of other polls, but with what success we have not learned.

The following gentlemen were elected from this District to represent us in the Legislature:

Senate—Lyman Allen, W B Mider, John Curtis.

House—Jas Blood, S N Hartwell, I B Abbott, John Hutchinson, C Hornsby, Jas McGhee, E B Fadum, H E Saunders.

The division was very great on the election of Legislative officers, and the vote on some of the candidates was very close. As soon as the returns are all in we will endeavor to give the result complete throughout the Territory in tabular form.

The officers will be sworn in on the 4th of March next, and the entire machinery of State Government will be set in motion.

To-Day's Daily.

Our Southern correspondence is particularly rich to day. We give three letters—one from Kentucky, one from Alabama, and one from Missouri, every one of them written with that genuine eloquence which the heart only can inspire. There is no part of our professional duty and prerogative which gives us so much pleasure as this to give voice through our columns to those natives of the slaveholding States and residents in them, who not only can find no medium there through which to address the public, but who if such a medium could be found, would write or speak only at the peril of their lives.

Each one of these letters goes to confirm what we have often asserted, that there is at the South no lack of men, including the best informed and most reflecting part of the community, ready to take Anti Slavery ground the moment they find it safe to do so. We of the North must be callous indeed if we can neglect these earnest appeals coming to us out of the house of bondage—not from the slaves but from the nominally free—appeals to us to stand firm in this great emergency. We fully agree with our Alabama correspondent that Kansas is to be the battle ground where the question of Freedom or Slavery for this nation is to be decided forever, and with our Missouri correspondent, that for the North to prove recreant to her profession now, would demonstrate her inability to govern herself, and would justify all the domination ever assumed by her slavedriving taskmasters. "May God so speed the right," says our Alabama correspondent, "and so the friends of humanity that justice shall triumph everywhere, and Slavery only be known as one of the darkest pages in our country's history!" "If the entire North knew," says our Missouri correspondent, "how many hundreds of thousands of the people of the Slave States would rejoice in God to see Slavery forever restricted to its constitutional limits, they would lay aside all local differences, and fix their eye on the broad plains and beautiful valleys of Kansas-Nebraska and at once march in unbroken phalanx to their redemption from the blighting mildew of Slavery."

So much for our own correspondence, apropos of which we give the following extract from a Washington letter in the New York Courier and Enquirer, a paper certainly not to be accused of any ultra Anti Slavery views:

To me it appears evident that the people of the Northern States are not aware of the real condition of things in Kansas. I believe that without large supplies of men, money, ammunition and fire arms, a massacre will take place there in the spring. This Message will greatly aggravate the aggressive and violent spirit of the Missouri borderers. If we neglect until the Spring opens the great duty of re-enforcing our people, the opportunity for defence will have been lost. I think I know something of the character of the men with whom they will have to deal. Two years ago I showed that they would do precisely what they have done, and I now state my conviction that a civil war is about to be commenced in Kansas, of which the object on the part of the aggressors, will be the utter extermination of the Free State settlers in the Territory or their expulsion from its soil. Atchison and Stringfellow openly declare themselves prepared for the greatest excesses, and every circumstance of this deplorable controversy turns out a proof that they will have the means of executing their plans, unless timely provision be made for meeting and defeating their attacks.

Shall not these appeals be fully answered? Shall not Kansas be defended and rescued? No time is to be lost in the performance of this great duty. Whoever means to share in it should be ready to act at once.—N. Y. Tribune, Jan 30th.

A COMPROMISE MEASURE.—Mr Bostedo, the representative from Waupaca county, has introduced a bill to divide Waupaca and create a new county. Weyauwega is to be the county seat of the new county, and Waupaca Falls of the remaining portion of the present county. The ballot box has been found utterly inefficient as an index of the popular sentiment of that county in relation to the settlement of the county seat question and this is probably the only manner in which the existing quarrel can be settled.—Madison Journal.

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 5, 1856. NEW SERIES.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Milwaukee, Tuesday Morning, Feb. 5, 1856.

CITY MATTERS.

Police Court, February 4.

Ann Langdon, for being drunk, fined $1,00 and costs; Theodore Baker, drunk and disorderly, fined $1,00 and costs; W. Rogers, drunk and disorderly, fined $3,00 and costs; C. Schwartz, drunk and disorderly, fined $3,00 and costs; Samuel Taylor, and P. Tager for fast driving over Spring Street Brige, fined $2,00. Charles Nunenmacher plead guilty to being drunk, and paid $1,00 fine.

A complaint was lodged and a warrant issued against Jacob Nunenmacher, charging him with resisting Policeman Kessler while in the execution of his duty.

Luther Sears and George Fink were each fined $2,00 for leaving their teams unhitched. Jacob Nunenmacher was arrested by Policeman Fischer and brought into Court on a warrant charging him with resisting Policeman Kessler. The defendant plead guilty and paid $5,00 and costs.

A warrant was issued against George B. Coon, charging him with an assault and battery upon Stephen E. Willis on the 4th of February.

Commercial Insurance Company.

The Directors of the Commercial Insurance Company of this city, at their meeting on Saturday, declared a cash dividend of ten per cent. on its Capital Stock, payable at their office on demand. The report of this company for the past year shows a very safe and remunerative business and the result must be entirely satisfactory to the Stockholders. They have confined their operations almost exclusively to home business and have found their account in it. They have paid back in cash to their customers 25 per cent. on premiums received from down shipments and 10 per cent. on premiums on up shipments. This of itself, is a good dividend, and when we add the 10 per cent. dividend on the capital stock of $100,000, and the surplus of cash and cash assets, amounting to $15,842 86 (over and above the $10,000 dividend) it shows a degree of prosperity unsurpassed among the Insurance Companies on the Lakes. The total cash dividends amount to about thirty-two per cent. on the gross receipts of the year. These receipts were $87,746 66; the amount of Marine losses $44,744 15; of Fire losses, none.

This Company has been thus far managed by a Board of Directors composed of many of our best and most estimable business men, and we speak, we believe, the universal sentiment in saying, that its affairs have been conducted with eminent fidelity and success and to the entire satisfaction of its customers and stockholders. The Board of Directors consists of the following gentlemen: Wm. J. Whaling, E. Cramer, D. Newhall, H. Hill, L. H. Kellogg, L. Sexton, J. T. Bradford, E. B. Dickerman, C. T. Bradley, T. W. Goodrich, M. Mack, J. W. Haskin, J. Mahler, J. A. Hoover, J. G. Inbusch, W. B. Hibbard, J. J. Tallmadge, E. Button, H. H. Harrison, D. O. Dickinson, M. B. Medberry, O. E Britt, E. Sanderson, R. P. Elmore, S. T. Hooker. J. A. Dutcher, J. H. Cordes, S. C. Tuckerman, J. Plankinton, G. Bremer.

The Directors, at their meeting yesterday, made choice of the following Officers: W. J. Whaling, President; J. G. Inbusch, Vice President; James B. Kellogg, Secretary; M. S. Scott, Treasurer; L. H. Lane, Inspector. The re-election of Mr. Whaling as President is a well-merited compliment to a faithful, experienced Officer. The Directors, in view of the rapidly increasing business of the Company, have resolved to increase their Capital this month to $200,000. They will no doubt have all they can do, the coming season.

Fire!—Between 5 and 6 o'clock, yesterday morning, a fire broke out in a frame building on East Water Street, a short distance North of the Market House, owned and occupied as a Bakery by a German, named Margroff. The weather was intensely cold, at the time, the mercury marking 15 degrees below zero, and the city seemed most unwilling to be roused, even by an alarm of fire. Engine No. 2, stationed immediately opposite the burning building, got to work in good season, and with the aid of the Hook and Ladder Company, kept the fire in check till the rest of the Fire Department got upon the ground. Several of the Engines, however, were completely disabled by the intense cold; but enough were kept at work to gradually extinguish the flames. Besides Margroff's building, two other frame tenements were pretty much destroyed. The first was occupied above, by a German family named Izemeiner, and below by T. Hoffman, tailor. The other was occupied as a dwelling and milliner shop by a German named Wallauer. Margroff had an insurance, on his building and furniture, of $1,200, and Izemeiner $400 on the house and $200 on the furniture. The others had no insurance. A good share of the furniture and goods was saved from the flames. Considering the extreme severity of the weather and the disadvantages under which the firemen labored, the fire was well stopped.

Merchants' Mutual—Dividend Day.—Yesterday was Dividend day with the Merchants' Mutual Insurance Company of this city, and in accordance with custom a handsome collation was set out, at the rooms of the Company, which attracted during the day, quite a number of visitors. Dr. Weeks, the worthy President of the Company, was indefatigable in his efforts to make his numerous guests entirely "at home," and he was well seconded by the other officers.

Notwithstanding the unusual number of marine disasters last year, our Home Companies have done well and show a fair balance sheet. The Merchants' Mutual, after paying about $76,000 in losses, have declared a cash dividend of 5 per cent, on the guaranteed capital, 10 per cent on the outstanding scrip and 10 per cent scrip dividend to policy holders. This is an unexpectedly favorable result and speaks well for, the prudent and faithful management of the officers.

The Lecture Last Night.—The repeated postponements of Professor Felton's promised lecture and the extreme cold weather combined to render the attendance at Young's Hall, last evening unusually slim. When the lecture commenced the Hall was quite comfortable, but before he got through it was cold enough to drive a portion of the audience away. The lecture itself disappointed us. Instead of a scholastic and critical dissertation upon "Socrates, Demosthenes and Paul," it was rather a rambling, though not uninteresting account of the [illegible] condition of Greece, with some incidents of travel and personal experience, and a few allusions to well known scenes in the lives of the three renowned Orators. Professor Felton spoke without notes and in an easy, though not impressive manner.

Frozen to Death.—An old woman named Landrigan was found frozen to death, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, by James Byrne, immediately behind the residence of James B. Brown, on Division street near Astor. The old woman was making for home on Saturday night with her milk cans, having supplied her customers; the marks of the cans in the deep snow show that she had struggled through a bank or drift, until she came to a place between the drift and the fence, where she was found, huddled up against the fence. She was in the habit of drinking—was intoxicated on Saturday night, about dark, when she bought a pint whiskey and started for home. She has a husband, a man of considerable property, and one son, now absent from the city.

Farmers' and Mechanics' Club at Whitewater.—This Club gave a Ball and Supper on Friday evening last, at the Metropolitan Hall, Whitewater. Speeches were made by Adam E. Ray, President, G. Kinney, Vice President, Mr. Wakely, Mr. T. W. Brown, and D. G. Nailes. A very large attendance was present from all the surrounding parts of the country. The attendance of ladies was unusually large, and the interests of the Agricultural and Mechanical Arts were never better represented in the State than at Whitewater on Friday last; the affair was one of great harmony, affording the greatest possible happiness to the numerous company present.

Detention Ball at Palmyra.—On Friday, the passengers by the express train, going west, on the M. & M. R. R., were detained at Palmyra about two hours, the locomotive having been telegraphed for to draw the eastern train to Eagle, the interval of detention was occupied by a party of ladies and gentlemen who were left in the depot by dancing several sets of cotillions, Sat Clark supplying the music with a comb and paper. The party dancing were in the first place bound for a ball at Whitewater, to which they were at last taken, when the locomotive returned, arriving at Whitewater past midnight.

Masquerade Ball.—The Masquerade Ball at Young's Hall this evening, in aid of the English and German Academy, bids fair to attract the largest crowd of the season. Four amusing masques are in preparation, besides any number of individual oddities. The managers intend that entire good order shall be preserved throughout the evening. The music, refreshments, &c., will be of the best. See advertisement.

The Cold Hangs on.—For the last three mornings in succession, the mercury, at 7 o'clock, has marked in different exposures about our city, from 12 to 16 degrees below zero. This would be called Siberian weather, if we had not got pretty well used to it. But after forty-three days of such cold, people become indurated and think that Dr. Kane had a pleasant time of it, upon the whole, up in the Arctic regions.

The Chief of Police.—We are glad to announce the recovery of the Chief of Police from his severe wound, so far as to enable him to visit the Police Station yesterday, and to inform the public, that with present appearances, he will soon be able to resume his duties with as much cheer as ever.

U. S. Insurance Company.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this Company, held yesterday, the following gentlemen were elected Directors, to fill vacancies in the Board: D. O. Dickinson, H. L. Palmer E. Sanderson.

Young Men's Christian Association.—We are requested to remind the members of the Young Men's Christian Association that the adjourned meeting is to be held this evening, at the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church, at 7 o'clock.

Land Warrants.—The attention of those wishing to purchase Land Warrants is invited to the notice of Bridge Brothers, in our advertising columns. They have a large supply on hand.

CONTRAST the tints brought out in the hair by Christadoro's matchless revitalizing Hair Dye, and those produced by application of the burning fluids ordinarily sold as Hair Dyes, you see at once that the color is natural in one case, unnatural in the other, and the simple reason is that Christadoro's is the only preparation which by its exact chemical combination operates on natural and immutable principles. LIABILITIES.

Unsettled claims for Losses and not due $176,052 47

The Ætna Insurance Company presents its patrons the very satisfactory condition, of a large increase in Cash Assets, for the further security of their policies—all our investments being placed at the minimum market value, at the present time of some depression in the standard of same. They are either prime dividend paying stocks, or good, valuable and clean investments, yielding moderate interest and income. The standard basis on which the Assets have been valued, being Gold at interest. Besides this solidity, the Company calls attention to the strength and security it derives from its combined system of Agencies, through its agents having the means of presenting a united phalanx of experienced Underwriters, which has worked, for thirty-seven years, the happiest results to stockholders, and claimants for losses—and enables it to enter the year 1856, with greater prestige for future usefulness, than has yet been reached by a really National Insurance Corporation.

All business attended to with despatch and fidelity.

BY THE "UNION" LINE.

Office, - - - Phœnix Buildings.

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

Congressional.

The Senate is engaged in receiving petitions from Naval officers aggrieved by the late board, and in discussion of matters connected therewith.

Mr. Tombs said the board should have kept record to show that they had not exceeded the jurisdiction conferred upon them. Wrong and injustice had been done by their decisions, and no action of his should sanction their proceedings.

Mr. Clayton defended the board, but was willing to correct any errors they may have unintentionally committed. The President and the Secretary of the navy may have power to reverse the action of the board, and unless it was shown that the board had exceeded their jurisdiction, it was to be presumed they had not.

Mr. B. continued that the naval board had not exercised any jurisdiction but simply gave their advice and opinions on matters before them. Mr. Bayard had no imputations to make against the board, it was composed of honorable and meritorious men but the law under which they acted was the most barbarous ever enacted by any legislature of any civilized country. He recommended the passage of an act authorizing a revisory board to be composed mainly of civilians. Meritt believed it was perfectly competent for Congress to annul and abregate the action of the board and make it as though it had never existed; after further debate the subject was postponed.

Many bills were introduced principally for internal improvement, and one by Mr. Adams to extend the term of naturalization.

On motion of Mr. Fink, the finance committee were instructed to enquire if the smaller Spanish coins may not be removed from circulation or have a value established by law to accord with their intrinsic value and to avoid the fractional part of a cent. Adjourned.

House.—The Speaker administered the oath to support the constitution of the U. S. to members, the representatives of each state advancing as their names were called for that purpose. The delegates from the Territories were likewise sworn. When the name of Mr. Whitefield of Kansas was called, Mr. Grow said in deference to the wishes of his friends he would not object to his being sworn. He thought however that circumstances would warrant the withholding the oath. He hoped to be heard some other time on the question.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, said that a constituent of his, a Kentuckian by birth, had been diabolically murdered in Kansas, having been shot, as he was credibly informed, by an officer under the pay of the general government in Kansas. As objection to the administration of the oath to Mr. Whitfield, would only tend to greater confusion after their excited stuggle, he would not insist upon it.

On motion of Mr. Washburne, of Maine, a committee was appointed to wait on the Senate, and inform them that a quorum of the House had assembled, elected Mr. Banks Speaker, and was now ready to proceed to business.

On motion of Mr. Pennington, a committee was appointed in conjunction with one from the Senate, to wait on the President and inform him that a quorum of the two Houses had assembled and were ready to receive any communication he might be pleased to make.

Mr. Thurston offered a resolution for the election of a Clerk, viva voce; laid on the table, 103 against 86.

House.—A resolution declaring Mr. Cullom of Tenn., Clerk of the House was adopted by 126 against 87.

As the Speaker administered the oath of office to Mr. Cullom, there were manifestations of approval in the galleries.

The members then proceeded to select seats in accordance with a resolution moved by Mr. Ball, that all the members retire without the bar and severally return as their names were drawn by the Clerk from a box, and take possession of such seats as they might select; this proceeding consumed about one hour.

Mr. Nichols then offered a resolution declaring Mr. Glassburner the present incumbent sergeant-at-arms, pending the consideration of which the House adjourned. After the adjournment an Anti-Administration caucus was to be held this evening.

Vessel Sunk---Seven Lives Lost.

New York, Feb. 4.

The Ice.—Brig W. H. Safford, of Bangor, from Attakapas, anchored in the East River, was cut through by ice last night and sunk. Captain Smith, his wife, 2 children, and 3 seamen were drowned; 2 seamen were saved by a boat from the North Carolina.

Additional Particulars.—The W. H. S. while laying at anchor near the Fulton Ferry, had her cable parted by the force of ice and the flood tide, when she drifted to the vicinity of the Navy Yard, and was brought to by her best bower anchor; this was at 3 o'clock this A. M. All on board except the Capt. then repaired to their berths, at 6 A. M., it was discovered she was filling very fast with the water to the lower benches. All were aroused and went on deck and the vessel immediately went down, two men named Wm. Brown and Frank Rider mariners, got into the crosstrees, they were afterwards rescued by a boat from the receiving ship North Carolina.

They were brought on board the ship in almost exhausted condition but soon recovered under the treatment of the surgeon of the ship. All the others on board the brig perished. These were the captain, named Smith, wife and two children, a girl aged eleven, and boy, four years of age. The names of the crew were Alex. B. Bringer, Henry Williams, and the Cook, colored, The latter was shipped in Demarara. All the others were shipped in Boston. When she sailed on her outward passage, the captain belonged to Frankfort, Maine. The vessel hailed from Bangor, was about seven years old and 350 tons burthen.

New York, Feb. 4.

In the Supreme Court this A. M., Judges Roosevelt and Clark submitted a written opinion in virtue of which Mr. Peabody takes his seat as Judge, notwithstanding the decision of the court of appeals in favor of Mr. E. H. Davis. The court hold that according to the same construction of the Constitution under which the court of appeals decided in favor of Davis overrules Cowles, the former must be set aside for Mr. Peabody; the decision of the court of appeals had reference only to the case of Messrs. Cowles and Davis but took no account of Mr. Peabody's title at all.

Fire in Syracuse.

Syracuse, Feb. 4.

The block known as Dillaye block, corner of Salina and F streets, was destroyed by fire ½ past 12, Sunday morning. Block owned by H. A. Dillaye. Lower floor occupied by Stillwell & Sons, boot and shoe store; Mann, Lewis & Belden, crockery store; Hayden & Sethworth, saddlery hardware store; T. A. Bartlett, druggist; O. K. Starrin, hosiery and fancy goods, and E. Sheldon, baker. Losses of the above firms probably covered by insurance. Upper portion of the block occupied by Daily Chronicle, Odd Fellows Hall, Armory Syracuse Citizens Corps, and law and other offices. Building valued at $35,000, insured $22,000.

Murder in Kansas.

New York, Feb. 4.

A Kansas correspondent of the Daily Times states that E. P. Brown, of Lawrence, who was recently the prisoner of the Kickapoo rangers, was subsequently murdered by a party of Missourians who set upon him with clubs, axes, knives, &c., and hacked him to pieces. The letter is dated January 20th.

Deaths in Boston.--Verdict in the Summer Case.

Boston, Feb. 4.

Two well known citizens died this A. M. Deacon Daniel Spafford, prominent for his interest in missionary enterprises, and Cyrus Alger, the well known cannon and gun maker.

In the case of Coburn and Delton, the Jury at 12 o'clock on Saturday night rendered a verdict of not guilty of manslaughter, but guilty of assault and battery.

Washington, Feb. 4.

The House, &c.—To-day, acting Sergeant-at-Arms Glassbrenner drew from the treasury about $80,000 in gold, which amount had been advanced by him to the members. Speaker Banks, at near midnight on Saturday, signed drafts for that purpose. $230,000 are yet due to members, and will be drawn during the week.

Boston, Feb. 4.

The citizens of Waltham, Speaker Banks' native town, fired 100 guns to-day in honor of his election. The announcement was made in Waltham late Saturday night by special messengers from Boston. Several dwellings were illuminated, congratulation speeches made, &c.—Mrs. Banks was called upon and found in attendance at the sick bed of her mother.

Chicago, Fond du Lac and St. Paul Rail Road.—We learn that Mr. Ogden, the President of this Company, has submitted certain propositions to the citizens of this place, which have been promptly accepted, and will lead to the immediate resumption of the work on this road, and its vigorous prosecution until it is put in full operation. An informal meeting of our citizens has been held, at which more than two-thirds of the real estate of the city was represented, which unanimously agreed to substantially comply with the conditions demanded, in order to induce the company to carry out their plan of constructing a railroad from Chicago to Fond du Lac. The whole of the affairs of this company are now in a definite shape and we may confidently expect that we shall soon have the pleasure of announcing that they have begun the work that will end in giving Watertown a direct railroad communication with the North and the South. We also understand that the village of Fort Atkinson will aid this enterprise to the amount of eighty or a hundred thousand dollars. This assistance will be such as to enable the Directors to go right ahead and no mistake.—Watertown Democrat.

The Weather—The Railroads—The Snow.—The weather during Saturday and Sunday, and the nights of those days was intensely cold, the thermometers in different parts of the city indicating at one time from fifteen to twenty degrees below zero, depending of course upon locality. At the hour of going to press, however, the indications were favorable for a warmer temperature.

On both Saturday and Sunday the trains on the different roads were delayed by reason of the bitter cold and drifting snow, and some of the passenger trains reached the city several hours behind time. So far as we can learn the roads are now clear of snow so that trains will not probably be delayed from this cause, though unless the weather moderates considerably before to-morrow some delay may arise from the cold.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

A Rush for High Prices.—The past two weeks has been a busy time for our merchants and warehouse men, in receiving and storing grain and pork, principally from the upper counties—much of the pork having come from Milwaukee. The teams from the up country will average about thirty a day. They bring down between twenty-five and thirty hundred lbs. each, get the tallest kind of prices for all they bring, and then get return loads in either fish, shingles or lumber. Never were better prices known in this country than farmers now get, or better sleigeing to carry their produce to market. The farmers are now the moneyed aristocracy of the country.—Green Bay Advocate. Jan. 31st.

Brooklyn taking Kansas Stock.—At a meeting held in Henry Ward Beecher's Church last Wednesday eve, between $30,000 and $40,000 of the stock of the Kansas Emigrant Aid Society was subscribed, in shares of $20 each. Speaking of the vital issue between Freedom and Slavery, between Republicans and Aristocracy, now pending in Kansas, and of the influences the North could send there to aid the truth and the right, Mr. Beecher said among other things that "the Sharpe Rifle was a truly moral agency."

Fruits of the Next Invasion.—We have before us a letter from a stout-hearted Free-Soiler, written from Lawrence, who speaking confidently of the carriage of the citizens of Kansas under the next invasion from Missouri, says, "I think when they drive us out of the Territory, many of them will have become actual settlers on small claims." We think so too.—Albany Eve. Journal.

HOW TO RAISE MELONS,
And how to Preserve the Plants when young, from Bugs and Worms.
TO FARMERS

I WOULD call your attention to a subject which may interest many of you, and is of considerable importance to you all, which is the culture of the Water Melon. I have made it my sole business for several years—believing that if I succeeded in growing this desirable and delicious fruit, and making it, by culture and choice of soils best adapted to its growth as sure as that of other crops and also to secure it against its enemies—the little yellow and striped bug, and the corn or cut worm, I should accomplish a much to be wished for task.

I am now gratified to be able to announce to you my

COMPLETE SUCCESS

One of the causes of the failure of the Melon crop, is on account of the bugs and worms (of which probably, you have all had sad experience). I have succeeded in securing the plants against these pests as effectually as though they were not in existence and in a manner too perfectly in accordance with nature. [illegible] experiment [illegible] largely on the old system of protecting the bugs from destroying the plants, but I discovered that the plans adopted, if anything more [illegible], the plant or was too expensive. I adopted an entirely new method, which is this. I watched the habits of the bugs in order to discover what food they preferred. When I discovered this I gathered the seeds of the plant and planted them between every second row of melons. The bugs at once left the melons for the plant, and they were left to grow as safely as though the bugs had no existence. The expense is but nothing—being about two hours' work to an acre. The method of securing the plant against the cut worm is quite as simple.

It is not necessary to say more on this subject, but I now offer you the receipt for the highest culture of the Water Melon, and the secret of protecting them from the enemies. I also send a package of FIVE VARIETIES OF WATER MELON SEEDS, which are, I believe, the best grown in the United States, three of the Water and two of the Musk Melons, one of the latter being a nutmeg or cantelope variety. The Water Melons are so selected that they succeed each other in ripening about two weeks, one of them ripens about two weeks earlier than any that I have ever seen. This early melon can be grown as far north as any corn can be grown, or is a rapid grower and a profuse bearer, and the best melon I ever saw raised in this latitude. I have been to considerable expense in experimenting and in the selection of the choicest varieties of seed, and also the expense of advertising, and to acquaint you with these facts, so I cannot do it without a price.

Farmers, I know this is valuable, and I believe that you want it, and I cannot charge you less than a dollar. Gentlemen, you that want this send money or orders—enclose a dollar and you will receive in return the secret for protecting the plants from enemies—the seed and the directions for cultivation.

If I do not receive a sufficient number of orders to warrant me in thus giving it, I will return the money, or I would say to those persons who have forwarded their orders, that they will receive back the money, or return the plants, or receive back their money. Address C. B. ABEEL,

The plan adopted in teaching, combines practice with theory, instead of using Text Books the pupils are exercised in making original entries of every day business transactions—Journalizing, Posting, Balancing Accounts, Opening and Closing a great variety of different Setts of Books, both for Partnership and Individual Business, where the business has been prosperous and adverse—and thus qualify the student for entering into the practical duties of the Accountant in any kind of business.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION will consist of DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK KEEPING, embracing every department of Trade and Mercantile Accounts, viz: Wholesale and Retail, Commission, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Shipping, Individual Partnership, Joint Stock and Compound Company Business. Also Commercial Calculations, Penmanship, Lectures on the Science of Accounts, &c.

Pupils are instructed individually, and not in classes so that Students may enter at any time and proceed in the ratio of their capacity and assiduity.

NOTICE TO ICE CONSUMERS.

THE UNDERSIGNED, the oldest ICE trader in the City of Milwaukee, would inform the Public that he, as usual, will cut his Ice in the neighborhood of the Harbor, in order to procure the clearest and best Ice, and also that he will place around the holes which he cuts in the ice, blocks of Ice as a fence that everybody may be warned from danger. The cutting will commence about the First of January.

If the Common Council will appoint an overseer I should have no objection, and I would even pay the expenses, should it be required.

LILLIE'S SAFE TRIUMPHANT.

New York, Nov 14th, 1855.
Philander Eddy, Ag't World's Safe Co., Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR—You will notice by the New York papers that Lillie's Chilled Iron, Fire and Burglar Safes and Bank Locks, manufactured by the World's Safe Co., Troy, N. Y., have as usual obtained another victory at the great Fair of the American Institute, held at the Crystal Palace, over the combined sheet iron Safe makers, by securing the first premium on both Safe and Lock separately. The Chicago certificate [illegible] posters were freely circulated here but [illegible] could not defeat the known superiority of Lillie's Safes, and the Crystal Palace jurors have now confirmed what the jurors of the Detroit Fair decided, the Chicago jurors [illegible], and the public reiterated, that Lillie's Safe and Bank Lock are the best in the world. Respectfully,

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year, Vol. XV of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, order-loving City like New York. The Nebraska Missourian forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, grinding, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality, while it has ardently resisted, and will persistingly combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiring, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given is more than quadruple that of its earliest issues, a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is noteworthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short, whatever affects the social well being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Actuated by profound conviction as to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication, whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—moved thereto with a sharp spirit of forbearance toward our weak neighbors and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its independence, cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party, so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1852 an attempt was made to interpolate slave hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition, and at the close of the last Presidential canvass it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whiggism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and utter violation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to sweep away the land marks of old party feuds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted, while the TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion.

Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scarcely a shadow of patronage, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form, DAILY (three distinct editions), SEMI WEEKLY and WEEKLY, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates:

Daily issues (evening and morning)	29,500	copies
Semi Weekly	14,175	"
Weekly	134,750	"
California edition.	9,000	"
Total	187,425	copies.

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this, and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only an indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust.
